JAMES MADISON HIGH SCHOOL
WAR HAWKS
VIENNA, VIRGINIA
1959
1980

1980

The cover of this yearbook was conceived with the purpose if illustrating this year's theme of tradition and heritage of the past melding with progress and hope for the future. The central design of the warhawk clutching the school emblem and ribbon represents the rich tradition of Madison High dating back to the school's opening in 1959, while the modern lettering and lines which border this design demonstrate our hope and confidence in the future. The 1980 yearbook cover design is a conscious effort to illustrate our pride in Madison's past and our strong belief that this pride will endure throughout the coming years.

The same

thing only different

The school appears the same, the yellow lighted halls and different colored classrooms with rows of desks. But the new construction adds a first glimpse of a change that has come to the school, a new decade well begun, and with it, is a spirit of hope. The school is linked to the past, held back by age, but the people are different, new faces, young faces. The students have an attitude of rebirth as does our Montpelier staff. We're out to set trends with our excellence and we have packed this yearbook with the feeling and emotion of the year, the ups, the downs, and everything between. We've tried to catch the moving times, without losing touch with our tremendous tradition.

Madison always prevails

The Madison football team was victorious over Herndon 27-22; the Homecoming bringing Madison's record to 5-1-1 and putting them in the thick of the race for first place in the Great Falls District. The crowd was highly emotional and cheered the team on to each of Madison's four scores. Madison led at the half 21-0 but Herndon's determined offense charged back to life taking the lead 21-22. Madison pushed for a final score in the closing minutes to lock up the game: Madison 27, Herndon 22. The game attendance was the highest of the year possibly because of the creative floats and the school spirit. The Madison cheerleaders and Pom Pon Squad led the Warhawk supporters in cheers throughout the game, inciting the crowd to roars of loyalty for the Warhawks. At the end of the game Herndon supporters left in a dismal mood while the Warhawks left jubilant, seeing the victorious game as a good indication of the excitement that the day had held for them.

our homecoming was different

Homecoming day overflowed with energy, which was not only expressed by our spirit and mood, but also was reflected by the color and originality put into our floats. The freshmen put their usual enthusiasm into building their float which not only reflected their spirit, but also their lack of experience. The sophomore and junior floats were imaginative, reflecting a lot of work by both, but the sophomores "Dumbo the Elephant" beat the juniors "Winnie the Pooh" in getting most creative. The seniors, who worked all through the night, came through by winning the contest with their "Puff the Magic Dragon" float, which showed not only the senior enthusiasm but their greater experience. At the center of all this, was the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. The princesses were Barbara Bentley, Melinda Ceresano and Bevie Ingram. Bevie was chosen as Queen.

Faces of '80

Robb Robb
VICKERY

Senior Class Officers

Our leaders (sec. Chipper Amyx, pres. Laurie MacVey, v. pres. Bevie Ingram, tres. Lizzie Hernandez) led us through our year of superiority which saw Senior Service Days, our second No.1 float, alumni telling of college life, those "ever-popular" dances, the meetings where much was "agreed" on, and the Senior Social. All our hours of building 'till we reached the final quest; our togetherness along with our spirit, made these last four years our BEST.

The Senior Year In Football

By Mike Kelly

Being a senior on the Varsity Football Team is a position of high esteem, experienced only once during the four hard years of high school. At this time, the senior is looked up to as the leader of the team who has the responsibilities to work hard at practice and set good examples for the underclassmen.

Before he can enjoy the privileges of being a senior, he begins to prepare for the Varsity as a freshman. Each year he takes another step forward until his senior year, when all he has learned and experienced begins to peak.

During this passage of time, he matures and develops stronger attitudes of self control, leadership and team pride.

Suddenly it is the last game. All the thoughts of grueling practice sessions and hard work vanish. Memories of good times come into focus. He remembers this season the most because he was a SENIOR on the J.M.H.S. Varsity Football Team.

Cross Country

Under the fine coaching of John D'Elia the cross country team completed its season in good standing. The team consisted primarily of talented underclassmen who showed great potential for next year. Led by senior David Modrak and underclassmen Mike Geary, Joe Purdham, Doug Swift, and Dan Walker the team finished with a 2-4 record.

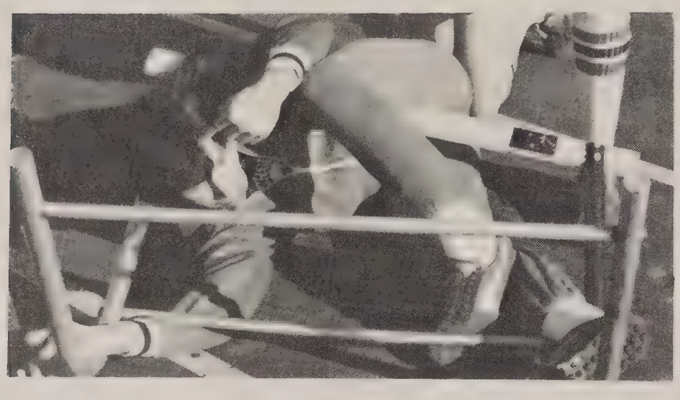
Winter Track



Murphy's Law No. 12: The fun, excitement, and thrill of any given sport is in exact proportion to the risks involved! Remember that next time, Richard!

Two members of the Winter Track Team sprint to the finish line where Mr. D'Elia waits to clock their best times.

Madison Winter Track is composed of students from all four grade levels. Under the direction of Mr. John D'Elia, the team practices every afternoon until five or five-thirty doing agility, speed, and endurance exercises. The Madison team competes in many area high school meets. Throughout this season the team was very successful, and in February, they took first place in the District.

James Madison's Thespian Club is a branch of the International Thespian Society. Its members are people who are interested in the theater arts as well as those who simply enjoy acting and backstage work. The Thespians' annual play production was "Arsenic and Old Lace" which gave participants an opportunity to display their talents in front of students and the public. Thespians help with many school and community events while expressing originality and spirit. Sponsored by Mrs. Nateman, the Thespians put together an assembly to honor outstanding efforts at the end of the 1980 year.

Thespian Officers: Sec. Leslie Bennett, Historian Sheli Sotiropoulos, Pres. Paul Batsel, V.-Pres. Bob Louthian, and Tres. Bill Nuhn.

The James Madison Marching Band of Renown has had another exciting and industrious year. After a diligent week at band camp at Townson College in Maryland, the band fired-up its marching season by attending the Dixie Danville Classic followed by the Lynchburg Classic. In both competitions the band placed fifth among numerous other bands from all over the nation. The Symphonic and Concert Bands participated in the District Festival, where, for the last five years, have received superior ratings. At Mid-Atlantic, the bands have not only been undefeated since 1977, but in the past year they won the Triple A, Single A, Honor, and the Grand Champion titles. This year, the Madison Band placed more top chairs at All-Regional and All-State band tryouts than any other high school in the state. The bands have also played with many television and radio celebrities, and this past December, the band hosted its third annual Tiny Tots Concert. The band is looking forward to a major competition trip in the spring, hopefully to Canada. Not only is the James Madison Band the pride of Vienna, the title "Ambassadors of Goodwill" was bestowed upon them by the Mayor.

The students who serve as math labbies are a group of the most helpful people at Madison. Teachers have more time to arrange lessons and plans thanks to Madison labbies. Grading papers, explaining problems to students, and clerical work make up a major part of their duties. The aides are a select few who like assisting students having any amount of trouble understanding exercises in algebra or general math. The labbies and their sponsor, Mrs. Sud, perform a valuable task that is appreciated by everyone.

Athletic Assistants

King

Preparing for home games is one of the jobs of the Student Athletic Association. Equipment, audio-systems, and the football field must all be readied before the Warhawk fans arrive at the home games. Mr. Davis heads up this organization of students that sets up the many necessities of home sports events. The work contributed by the Athletic Assistants is visible during competitions that run smoothly thanks to their efforts.

I feel that there is an art to photography. There is more to photography than just taking pictures. Photography is capturing the intensity or tranquility of the moment on film. A picture should reveal the atmosphere of the situation and tell a complete story.

Hawks the Victors

Psyched up by the Homecoming Pep Rally, Madison jumped to a 21-0 first-half lead over Herndon behind the running of Mike Kelly and a swarming defense led by Mike Sadowski, Bobby Handforth, and Charlie Haslip. Herndon dominated the second half just as Madison dominated the first, scoring three straight touchdowns and a field goal to take a 22-21 lead. With 2:48 left in the game, Warhawk quarterback Mark Miller fired a 33 yard touchdown pass to Calvin Parker to give Madison a 27-22 victory. — Brian Doyle

The parade of floats down Maple Avenue began the 1979 Homecoming Festivities as Storybook Characters, the theme of this years Homecoming, urged the football team on to victory over the Herndon Hornets. The judging of the floats took place both before and during the game on the basis of originality and over-all effect. Winning first place in the catagories of Originality and Best-all-around, the senior float depicted "Puff the Magic Dragon" which actually puffed smoke. The sophomore float featuring Dumbo and the slogan "Crush the Hornets" received second place in both catagories. Among the other floats was the Freshman float of Hansel the football player and Gretel the cheerleader with the caption "Smoke the Hornets". The junior float of Winnie-the-Pooh who urged — "Stick it to 'em!", received first place and a silver dish in Vienna's annual Halloween Parade.

New Miss Madison

The 1979-1980 Miss Madison is . . . Miss Laurie MacVey! These were the words that brought the 1979 Miss Madison Pageant, a poise, personality, beauty and talent competition, to a close on Saturday night, Oct. 27, in Madison's newly renovated auditorium.

The pageant was sponsored by F.H.A. with the help of Mrs. Walochik and the pageant chairman, Jaytee Tufano. Masters of Ceremonies Paul Batsel, Mark Eaton, Chris Kibler, and Matt Merrell, wearing the Traditional white tie and tails, performed British comic monologues and sketches dealing with subjects ranging from one-legged Tarzans to nude ladies dancing enticingly in coal mines. Madison's orchestra, under the direction of Ms. Beverly Winder added to the evening's entertainment.

The theme of the 1979 pageant was "A New Era for Women" and the seven semi-finalists were asked to respond verbally to this theme. For the talent segment of the show, Laurie MacVey performed magic tricks while singing "Both Sides Now." Donna Ormsby, the first runner-up, danced as the character Pinnochio to the song "Got No Strings." Second runner-up Tina Chapin performed a jazz dance to "Pick Up The Pieces" while third runner-up Kathy Murphy danced to "Steam Heat." Peggy Hall, the fourth runner-up, performed a pantomime to the song "Beauty School Drop-out." Catherine Moulthrop was voted "Miss Congeniality" by the other contestants. The pageant was a success due to the help from faculty members.

1. Doing her winning routine is the new Miss Madison, Laurie, MacVey. 2. Wearing her crown, Miss Madison, Laurie MacVey, beams at the Photographer. (p. 134)

1. Fourth runner-up, Peggy Hall, performed a pantomime to "Beauty School Drop-out." 2. As Pinnochio, Donna Ormsby danced to first runner-up. Third runner-up Kathy Murphy generated "Steam Heat." Tina Chapin, second runner-up, "Picking up the Pieces." The seven semifinalists: Donna Ormsby, Mary Ann Zalesko, Kathy Murphy, Laurie MacVey, Peggy Hall, Tina Chapin, and Kim Carter. Voted by the other contestants as "Miss Congeniality" is Catherine Moulthrop.

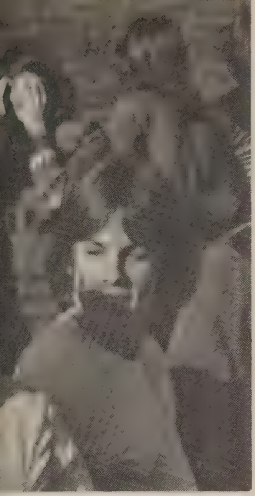
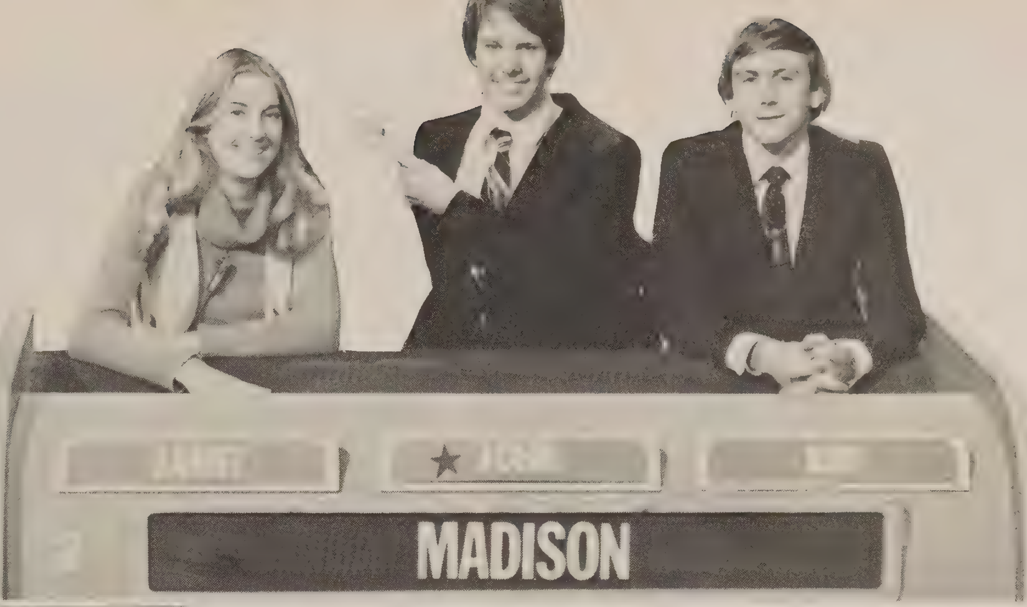
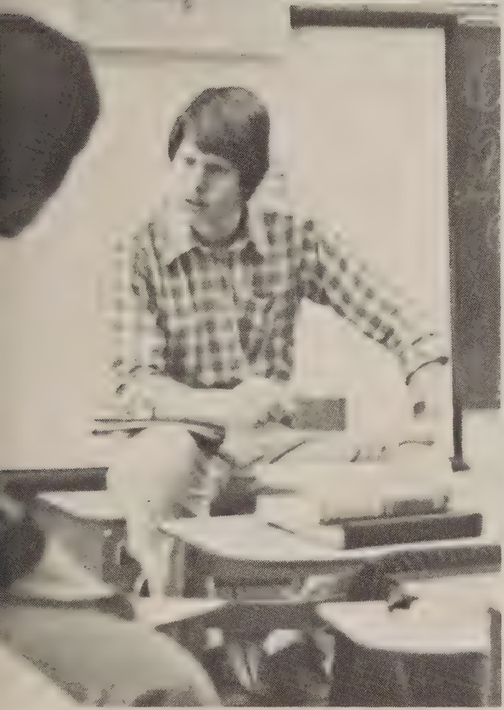
Juniors Blitz Seniors 26-0

Madison's ``Powder-Puff'' football game was a huge success for every one despite the 26-0 victory for the juniors. The seniors looked dangerous in their flashy red jerseys and appeared to be an organized club ready for a win, but neither their organization nor their red jerseys could hold back the juniors who fought unbeatably from start to finish. Sarah Briggs '81 displayed remarkable talent and was voted ``most valuable player of the game.'' The juniors' defense was exceptional in holding the seniors, and the cheerleaders, adorable in their long-johns and skirts, provided the spirit for a successful game.

1. Senior Kim Adams runs with the ball as junior Robin Sobieski and seniors Sandy Smiroldo and Sherri Beck are in hot pursuit. 2. Senior Stan Mocarski demonstrates his cheerleading ability. 3. Chris Kearney '80 and friend try out a new routine. 4. Powerful kicking was a major asset for the juniors.







"Welcome to It's Academic" greeted Madison's team for the 19th consecutive year on November 10. New sponsor Mrs. Barbara Frazier and John Meyers, the team Captain, worked hard to prepare the team for competition against Oxon Hill and Seneca Friends; others teachers helped by contributing practice questions. Madison's team, John Meyers, Janet Kirby, and Ken Harris, however, were unable to match the other high schools, finishing a close third.

To aid in preparing for future meets, this year's team and sponsor, Barbara Frazier, have formed an "It's Academic Club" with John Meyers as its president.

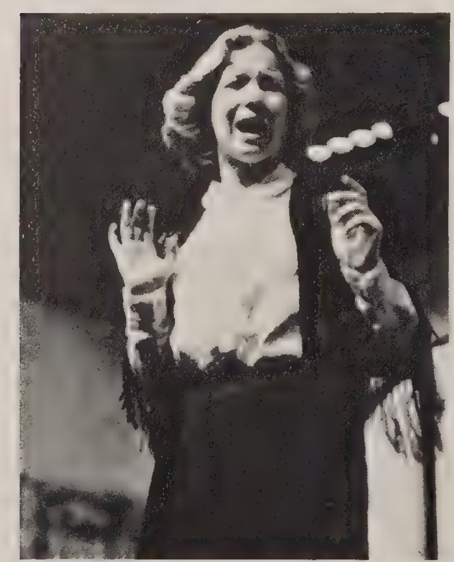
Arsenic and Old Lace

Madison's fall play, Joseph Kesserling's suspenseful comedy "Arsenic and Old Lace," was presented on November 29, 30, and December 1 in Madison's newly renovated auditorium. The starring roles were played by Jennifer Keller, Caroline Guthrie, Pete Bolinger, Bill Nuhn, and Brad Angevine, these last four of whom are seniors. This was Jennifer Keller's first production at Madison, but she has previously performed in plays in Pakistan, where she just moved from. Her "sister" Caroline Guthrie also played her first major role at Madison, as did John Herlig, who, with Eric Moss, made his debut in "Arsenic And Old Lace." Despite a young cast and some errors in direction, the play was enjoyable, thanks to the sparkling performances of Freshman Jennifer Keller, and Seniors Brad Angevine and Pete Bolinger.

Cast: Abby Brewster . . . Jennifer Keller. Martha Brewster . . . Caroline Guthrie. Teddy Brewster . . . Peter Bollinger. Mortimer Brewster . . . Bill Nuhn. Jonothan Brewster . . . Brad Angevine. Elaine Harper . . . Shelli Soutioropoulos. Dr. Einstein . . . Eric Moss. Dr. Harper . . . John Herlig. Miss Witherspoon . . . Sarah Bryant. Officer Brophy . . . Lisa Boles. Officer Klein . . . Mike Greiner. Mr. Gibbs . . . Mike Toohey. Officer O'Hara . . . Frank Summers. Lieutenant Rooney . . . A. C. Russell.



1. Aunt Abby, played by Jennifer Keller, doesn't like the idea of Jonathan's moving in. 2. "Going to Panama, old boy," says Teddy alias Theodore Roosevelt alias Pete Bolinger . . . to Jonathon, "digging for locks, you know." 3. pg. 140: "Mortimer (Bill Nuhn), your brother just tried to kill me!", exclaims Elaine Harper (Shelley Soutiropoulos). "Oh, my God! It's a walking corpse!" Not really Mortimer, it's your brother, John. 2. Dr. Einstien, alias Eric Moss, discovers the awful truth: "gulp!, D-d dead b-bodies?!" 3. "Have a glass of elderberry wine?" Aunt Martha played by Caroline Guthrie, helps out lonely elderly gentlemen. 4. Johnathon, played by Brad Angevine, moves in to Aunties' house.

AT THE FOLLIES

Where were you on February 4? If you were a good little hawk, you saw Derek Whitbreads win first prize at the Follies with his disco dance routine. Sponsored by the Thespian Society and hosted by Shelli Soutiropoulos and A. C. Russell (opp. page), the Follies presented a variety of acts: The Bootleg Band (1), a comic dialogue by Laurie MacVey (2) and Lizzie Hernandez, and a guitar solo by Bill Hoffman (3). Bill McCarthy won 2nd prize with a magic routine, and David Pronko (4) won 3rd with a piano recital of "April Suite," a song he wrote himself.

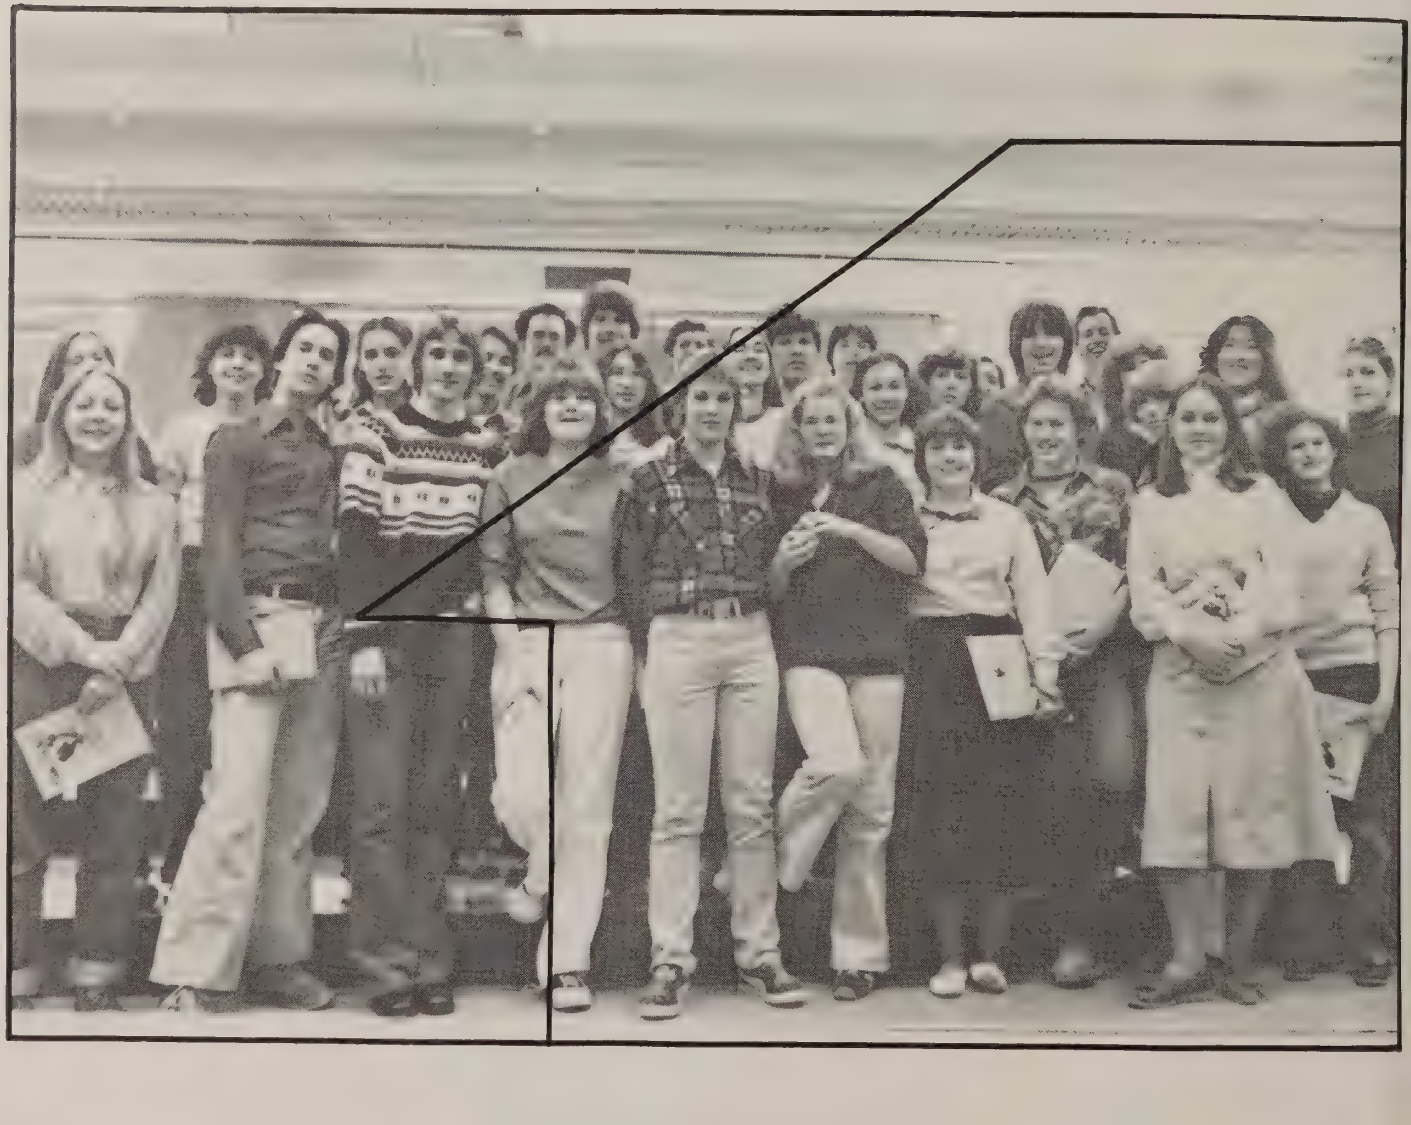
Madison's Spirit

Presented as a joint effort by the Drama, Choral and Orchestra departments, this year's spring play FIDDLER ON THE ROOF packed the house on March 27, 28, and 29.

The musical, the story of Tevye, a poor Jewish dairyman trying to "keep his balance" during social changes and Tsarist oppression of the Russian Jews, was directed by Bob Loutian and choreographed by Vicki Small. Paul Batsel in the title role gave an exciting performance in his final Madison production, as did Lori MacVey, as Golde, his wife. The cast also included Caroline Guthrie, Lou Donly, Mary Ann Zelasko, Amy Flax, and Sharon Lyon as the daughters; Derek Whitbread, Bill McCarthy, and Bill Nuhn as the suitors;

THE FIDDLER ON THE ROOF



A.C. Russel as Lagar Wolf, the butcher; Frank Summers as Mordcha; Marie Findeis as Yente, the Matchmaker; Eric Moss as the rabbi; Jennifer Keller as Grandmother Tzlitel; Janet Kirby as the late Truma Sarah; Leslie Bennet as Shaindel; David Thureysen as Mendel; Paul Thureysen as Avrahm; Peter Tolberg as Nachum the beggar; and Greg Taylor as the Constable. Members of the chorus of villagers are: Diane Broderich, Tina Chapin, Marcio Cochran, Ninette Edmondson, Liz Gruner, Mary Lynn Halfmann, Cathy Hamlin, Bevie Ingrao, Susan Johnson, Cheryl Kim, Marueen Latimer, Laurie Unofrio, Alynne Rucker, Mernie Tans, Kristi Small, Jenny Stoherr, and Jenny Wojtal.

GEORGE FELTON LEAVES

George W. Felton, after four years as Madison's principal, became the new principal of South Lakes High School in March, leaving a school that he says has the elements of success—a good student body, a good teaching staff, and a supportive community.

Seeing few problems when he arrived, Mr. Felton set his goals "to continue the academic excellence and to support the teachers and students." He feels these goals have been accomplished. "Madison is a fine school" says Mr. Felton, "a lot of spirit and pride here."

Although he admitted "mixed feelings" about leaving, Mr. Felton feels good about his new job: "They've gotten off to a good start, and I hope to help make (South Lakes) the top school in the county and to establish a tradition of excellence."

Before he left, however, a special assembly and a SGA-sponsored "dress-up day" honored Mr. Felton for his service to Madison.

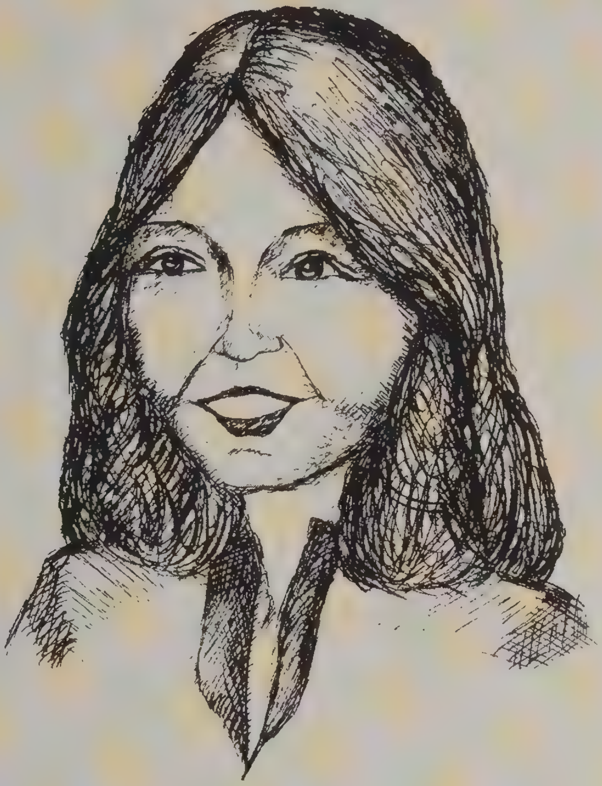
In Loving Memory of Kimberlee Brown



Throughout the years we spend together, few things mean as much as friends. The warmth and joy Kim Brown gave to people who knew her made Kim a part of each of us. The times of laughter shared with a companion create memories that will accompany us during our lives. Kim is in our thoughts, and most of all, she is in our hearts.

HEAVEN & EARTH

Scientific concern ranged from space travel to nuclear power to care of the planet

This NASA composite of photographs from Voyager I's flyby of Jupiter earlier this year shows the planet (top) attended by the four largest of its 14 moons. Space probes like this and Viking, which actually landed on Mars and sent pictures of its barren surface back to Earth, were man's most outstanding accomplishments in the heavens.

UNDERCLASS

Juniors

This year has been especially successful for the class of '81. Their work on the Homecoming float, "Winnie the Pooh," won first place in the Halloween parade, and the Juniors' scores on the PSAT's were higher than prior years. Many other projects that were undertaken by the Juniors proved they were one of Madison's most productive classes.

The largest accomplishment of the class of '81 was their magazine drive. They took the responsibility of raising funds for the Senior prom, and the profits were so great the Juniors were able to create many more projects from the proceeds. One particular function of their activities was to offer more information about colleges and career planning. This was done through Tyson's College Fair. The Juniors and their officers have shown great leadership which is a major reason for this outstanding year.

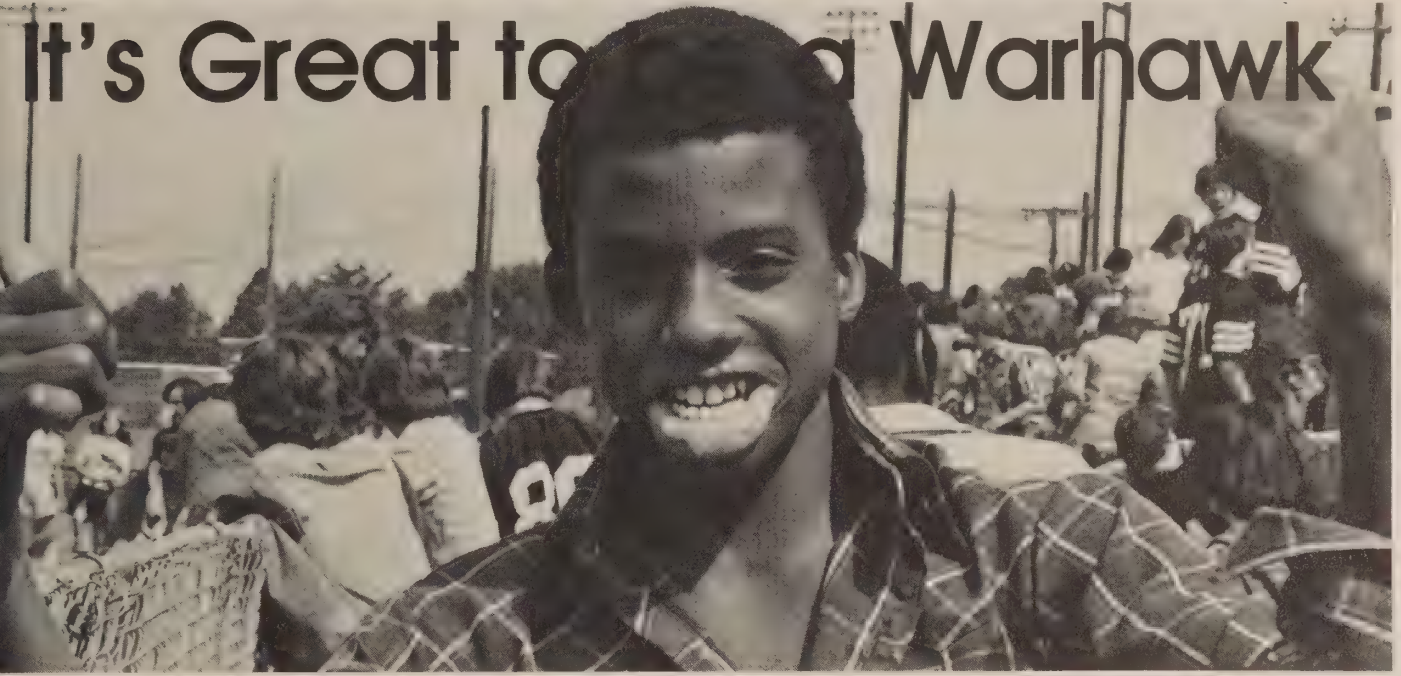
It's Great to a Warhawk



Maxie Letcher expresses the excitement felt during the pep assembly held on the football field before the Madison-Marshall game. The pep rally was the first one held this year to help generate spirit for this traditional rivalry game. Cheered on by the faithful supporters, our Warhawks fought hard, but lost out to the Marshall team 15-28.

Sophomores

Throughout the year, the class of '82 presented their projects with a great deal of imagination and concern. A large number of Sophomores worked on the construction of "Dumbo." The Homecoming float received second place in the showing during the football game against Herndon. A great deal of support for the S.G.A. was provided by the Sophomores during many of their undertakings. The officers led their class through a smooth year which provided potentially helpful experiences.

The first class to be given the stricter graduation requirements will be this year's Sophomores. They have enjoyed the newer career room and have shown interest in keeping it. The class of '82 is a spirited part of Madison.

Freshmen

As soon as the '79 school year started, the Freshmen class began work with the help of staff administrators. The newly elected officers' first priority dealt with forming students from many different areas into a supportive and strong part of Madison. The Homecoming float was their first chance to work together, and they devoted a great amount of spirit and time to it. Even though the float did not place in the competition, it was one of the many ways the Freshmen displayed a constant enthusiasm and interest in Madison.

New opportunities have opened to this year's Freshmen class. Affecting the class of '83 are the Minimum Competency Tests and stiffer standards for graduation. Madison has become more demanding and challenging for its new students; moreover, the Freshmen have shown their talent and ability.

AS SOON AS I GET UP IN THE MORNING. I FEEL LIKE I'M IN OVER MY HEAD!

Lisa Courtney, Doc Basil, Laura Potts, and Jon Oschely knew what to do on Thursday, September 20th — the day classes were cut short to allow the student body to participate in a mass pep rally held on the football field. The rally was used to psych up the Warhawks for the traditional rivalry game between Madison and Marshall. The Warhawks fought hard during the game but valiently went down in defeat by losing to Marshall by a score of 15-28.

What is a parade without a band! The band steps lively down the main streets of Vienna during the homecoming parade. Our Warhawk band always provides good music and today was no exception.

The Homcoming parade was a excitement for all the Madiso Warhawks. This excitement wa exhibited by the colorful floa and the great student body pa ticipation. The band participate the football team was in ev dence and the cheerleaders led the cheering.

The Girls Varsity Softball Team advanced to state finals last year. The girls traveled to Virginia Beach to play the championship game. There they played an excellent game which was obvious by the final score of 5 to 1. To commemorate their victory there is now a sign of the front of the school which is there to remind everyone of these very fine athletes.

The girls indoor track team had a good season with a 5 and 2 record and finished second in the district meet. Their season started in early November and continued through the beginning of February. They practiced at least one and a half hours daily. The only thing "indoor" about indoor track was the meets; otherwise, no matter how cold it got, the girls trained outdoors. Individual district champs included: Theresa Mitchell in the 600 yard run and Jo Ellen Cameron in the mile and 2 mile. Jo Ellen was fourth in the Regions for the one mile run. Voted most valuable of the girls was Theresa Mitchell and most improved was Julie Bergdahl. The coaches' award went to Jo Ellen.

This is James Madison High School's twenty-first year. Many changes have been made since last year. Along with additions to the school building, there have been additions to the school staff. We were sorry to see some teachers leave, but welcomed the new ones. Thanks to the administration and faculty at Madison many students have gone on to pursue successful careers in the outside world.

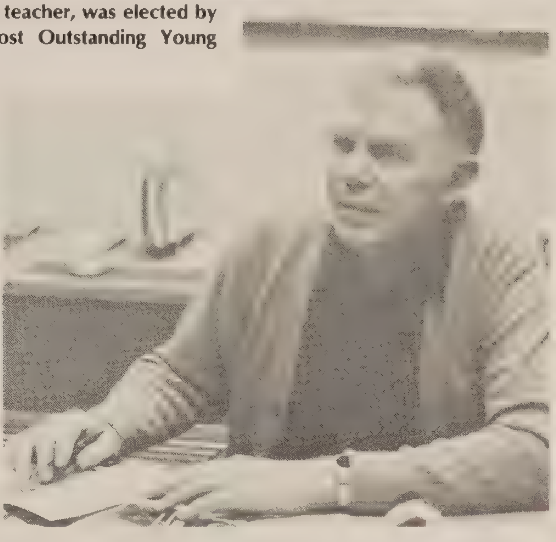
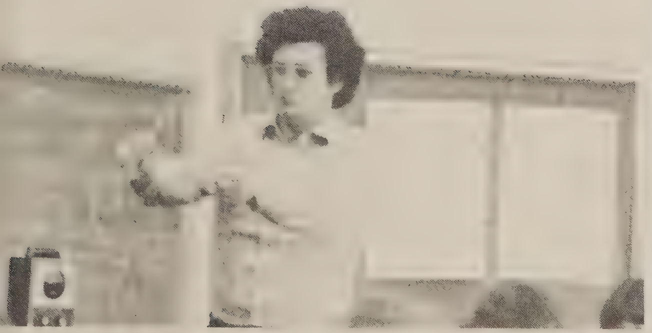
Did You Know That . . .

Miss Linda Sharrard, popular Latin teacher, was elected by the Vienna Jaycees as the "Most Outstanding Young Teacher of the Year".

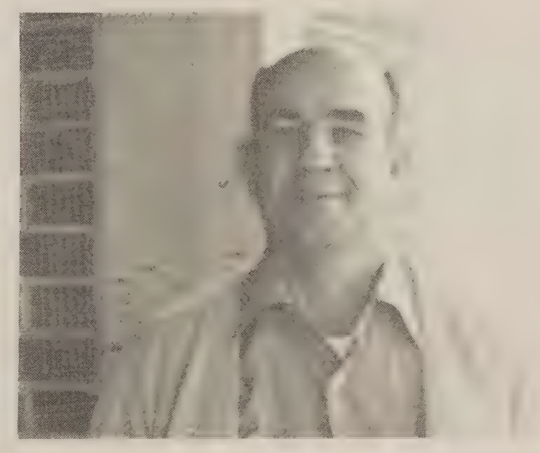
Don Roth played professional baseball for five years with the Baltimore Orioles. He was an 8th round draft choice in 1965, starting out as an outfielder.



Norm Chaudet takes on added responsibilities by directing musicals. His last two being the tremendously successful "Godspell" and "I do, I do".



Mr. Jeff Bianchi, in addition to our own band has been a member of the U.S. Marine Band, National Gallery Orchestra, Washington Opera Society Orchestra and the National Ballet Company Orchestra.



Mr. Wayne Parker is one of our great (and brave) driver trainer teachers.

Chuck Sell soars above the clouds piloting a Fairchild 24 (a five passenger plane). He was a pilot instructor for the Air Force during WWII.

John Kline spends his summer mont boarding and training dogs. He specialty the Brittany Spaniel — which is a pointi bird dog.

Mrs. Peggy Matlack is quite interested in the training and showing of dogs. She has received 2 degrees while showing her German Shepherds: The Companion and Companion Dog Excellence. She is currently training for the Utility and Tracking Degree.

Glenn Bowman, 8 years with the Oratorio Societ of Washington, has sung in opera as well as musica comedies. He has sung under Leonard Bernstei and Rostropovitch. His favorite role — Fagan fro
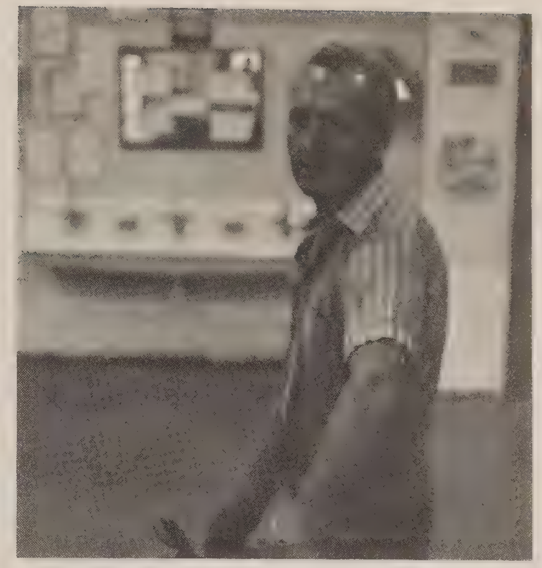
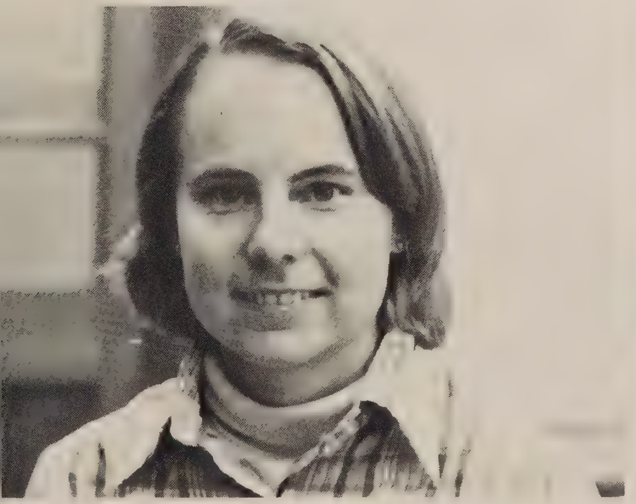
"Oliver".



The Town of Vienna has profitted from the services of our shop department under the guidance of Mr. Dove. The boys have built 5 bus stops, a recycling center for papers, bottles, aluminum cans. They have also planted shrubs and plants for the town. Thanks.

The results of a straw ballot taken here in school placed Ms. Moore's students among the top "most likely to be eaten by the plants in the classroom". Second place was won by Mr. C's students.

Mr. Felton and Mr. Garber model the new shirts worn by the members of the athletic department in their show of school spirit. The shirts are patterened after those worn by the coaches of the Houston Oilers.



Mrs. Sud spent three weeks this winter visiting in Indonesia and India (the fifth trip to India). She always keeps her students in mind, for her lucky students this year each received coins from India.

Mrs. Snuggs and Mrs. Kelly have more in common than math, for each was a coach this past year. Ms. Snuggs coached her son's soccer team and Ms. Kelly was her daughter's softball coach. Ms. Kelly's team was undefeated and went on to win the regional championship. Mrs. Snuggs had no comment.
